FRANK BUCK

By Arlie R. Slabaugh

Frank Buck was born in Gainesville, Texas, in 1884. He was at the height of his fame in the 1930's, when he wrote "Jungle Animals" and "On Jungle Trails." Prior to that he had written his first book, "Bring Them Back Alive," which gave him his nickname. During a career of over 25 years, mainly between World War I and II, he had brought back over 100,000 animals.

During this period he also produced films based on his African and Asian jungle safaris. In 1938 he was hired by the re-organized Ringling Brothers Circus at $1,000 a week, complete with a private railroad car. In 1939-40 the New York World's Fair had him and his animals for an attraction called Jungleland which was one of the most popular features of the Fair.

The illustrated token is a souvenir advertising token of Jungleland. I cannot recall having seen it published before. The obverse pictures Frank Buck in his familiar pith helmet. The reverse depicts on of his black panthers, with FRANK BUCK'S JUNGLELAND * NEW YORK WORLD'S FAIR * around the outer border. Brass, 30mm., holed at top as made.

Frank Buck died in 1950 - he is now one of the "lost men of American history." If you don't think so, try checking him in a major encyclopedia and see how much you can find about him. In the mid-1930's, if memory serves me correctly, he was famous enough to be featured on breakfast cereal boxes—perhaps that is a small measure of fame but it is better than the present ennui. If you wish to be known a hundred years from now, be a politician and bring back the votes (dead or alive) —wild animals don't count.

TAMS

CALL FOR ALL CATALOGUERS

Comprehensive Listing to be Presented

Over a period of the past few years much effort has been devoted to compiling catalogue type listings for various specialty areas in the exonumist field. From time to time the various cataloguers and their interests have been the subject of short notices in the "TAMS Journal."

Because of the generally scattered nature of these notices, it is not easy for those with potential material for listing to contact the proper specialist or specialists. To rectify this difficulty, it has been decided that an official TAMS listing should be prepared and presented in the pages of the "TAMS Journal."

To accomplish the presentation of such a comprehensive listing, all cataloguers, be they collecting items of a specific nature or of a specific state, are asked to place their cataloguing specialty and name and address on a post-card and send it to the Journal editor. Responses should not be restricted to those who have not yet been listed in the pages of the "TAMS Journal," as even those who have been listed only recently may be missed accidently.

It is hoped that a fairly complete listing of current cataloguers can be prepared for presentation in the first Journal issue of 1967. In this way, it is hoped that others will be able to be induced to take up areas on which no announced work is being done, and that a conflict of efforts can be avoided, or that a combining of efforts can bring about more comprehensive catalogue listings.

TOKEN AND MEDAL SOCIETY GENERAL MEMBERSHIP MEETING MINUTES

Pick-Congress Hotel, Chicago, Illinois

Washington Room, 2:10 P.M., August 19, 1966

On the date, at the time and place listed above, the meeting of the General Membership of the Token and Medal Society was called to order by President Virginia Culver, with 83 officers and members present, representing 20 states, the District of Columbia and Canada. Complete list, as signed by those attending, is attached to and made a part of these minutes.

The President called on all those present to stand and introduce themselves.

Minutes of the General Membership meeting held August 27, 1965, in Houston, Texas, were approved as read.

Treasurer George Hatie made a complete report of the Society's finances during the past year, noting an income of $14,997.90 and expenses of $10,514.63 leaving cash in the bank of $4,483.27. A complete breakdown of this report is attached to the minutes of yesterday afternoon's Board of Governors meeting. A complete report on the income and expenses of the TAMS reprint project, since its inception, is also attached to the Board minutes. Briefly, this project has shown a net profit of $2,426.53.

Journal Editor Clifford Mishler reported on the five issues of the TAMS Journal published since last meeting, noting an improved product and pointing out that the future looks good, with adequate editorial matter presently on hand. His complete written report is attached to yesterday's Board minutes.

Librarian Byron Johnson read a report noting increased activity in the use of TAMS references, and thanking 19 contributors of books during the past year. He concluded his report by announcing a small gift would be given by him personally to the person who had done the most for the TAMS Library during the past year . . . and then announced the recipient as Dr. George Fuld. The Librarian's complete written report is attached to yesterday afternoon's Board minutes.

In the absence of Book Editor Al Hoch, President Culver announced that all Wright reprints had been sold, that about 160 Crosby reprints remain for sale, and that just at the moment, copies of the newest TAMS reprint, King's works on Lincoln, were on their way from the printers. She further reported that the Board, in earlier session, had expressed support of the idea of TAMS publishing original works when available, pointing out that works by Arlie Slabaugh and Byron Johnson are already in process.

Advertising Manager Bill Spilman reported a total of $935.69 received in classified and display advertising revenues during the past year.

Acting Secretary Bill Spilman reported the resignation of Secretary Bob Hailey in April because of a major job relocation. He reported a total of 385 new members since last meeting, the largest year since 1961 for new members. He further noted that during the reign of President Culver, 645 new members had been enrolled, nearly half the present membership of TAMS which is nearing its 6th anniversary.

The Acting Secretary further reported that during the past year, nearly $300 worth of back issues of the Journal had been sold, and almost $600 worth of Assemblage medals, both through the Secretary's office. He reminded members that some bronze 1964 and 1965 assemblage medals remain for sale from the original 500 that were struck. Orders for the 1966 silver assemblage medal will be accepted through August 31, 1966, and bronze 1966 assemblage medals will be sold until the original order of 500 is gone.

Speaking for the Nominating Committee, Clifford Mishler reported that the following officers had been duly elected during the Board meeting:

President - William B. Spilman
1st Vice President - Ralph A. (Curly) Mitchell
2nd Vice President - George D. Hatie
Secretary - Byron Johnson
Treasurer - Ben Odesser

He then proposed a slate of 10 members for the Board of Governors as follows:

FOR ONE YEAR:	Arlie Slabaugh
Dottie Dow	Max Schwartz
Al Hoch	Lew Panosh
FOR TWO YEARS:	M. M. Gould
Bob Hailey	Randolph Zander
Ed Quagliana	J. Douglas Ferguson

As no additional nominations to the Board were forthcoming from the floor, President Culver entertained a motion by Russell Rulau that the slate be adopted by acclimation, and it was so done.

1st Vice President Spilman reported on a mail vote by Board members concerning the issuing of Past President's portrait medals, noting that of 14 votes received, 12 voted unconditionally in favor of the move, and two others favored it with reservations. In view of this vote, a sculptor was commissioned to do the first four TAMS' presidents, namely George Fuld, Jim Curto, Paul Hamm and Virginia Culver. Medallic Art Co. of New York was selected to make the dies and strike the medals from sculptor Don Dow's models.

The approved proposal is to present each president, upon their retiring from office, a gold filled, silver and bronze portrait medal of themselves, and then make available to the membership at large, silver and bronze strikings. The medal will be two inches in diameter. Bronze will sell for $6 and silver for $15 or the set of one each will go at $20 to members. Price to interested non-members will be $7.50 for the bronze and $17.50 for the silver.

President Culver reported Paul Hamm's portrait medal completed, and said the remaining three should be ready for distribution and sale within two months. Members will be advised to watch the Journal for additional details.

President Culver announced that she had appointed Irene Alexander of Spokane, Wash. as Librarian and re-appointed Clifford Mishler as Journal Editor.

Ben Odesser of Chicago, in charge of TAMS arrangements during the convention, announced that tickets were still available for the annual TAMS banquet tonight at $5 each. He reminded members that numerous special awards were scheduled for presentation and that several special banquet favors were to be given all those who attended.

1st Vice President Spilman, as Chairman of the Resolutions Committee, presented that committee's report, which included four separate resolutions. Included were suggestions to award framed Certificates of Appreciation to Harry X Boosel, Ben Odesser, Ellis Edlow and Western Coin Collector; writing of three letters of appreciation to Coin World, Numismatic News and Glenn Smedley (both publications are previous winners of the Certificate of Appreciation) and finally a resolution to pay the Journal Editor $300 annually, retroactive to 1965.

As the report of the Resolutions Committee was presented earlier to the Board in the form of a motion to adopt, Governor Schwartz seconded, and the complete report was unanimously adopted by the Board in its earlier session. Complete report is attached to the Board minutes.

President Culver then made the actual presentations of the framed Certificates of Appreciation to Ben Odesser, Harry X Boosel and Barbara Rader of Western Coin Collector.

President Culver made a brief report on the activities of her office during the preceeding two years, noting the challenge that it presented and the great satisfaction derived from the responsibilities and work of the President's office. She expressed deep personal pleasure in seeing the Society grow, in the help she received from many members in carrying out TAMS functions, and in the wonderful future that lies ahead for TAMS. She concluded her report by introducing the new officers.

Past President Jim Curto then issued a challenge to the new officers and Governors, pointing out the work to be done and the growth potential that TAMS has, noting the many areas in which forward progress can be made.

One new member of the Board of Governors, J. Douglas Ferguson, responded to the challenge. He mentioned numerous Canadian literary works of interest to TAMS members that he would make available to our library, if a check of the references on hand revealed they were needed. He further promised his full cooperation in TAMS affairs and expressed a hope for an expansion of TAMS memberships in Canada.

After indicating a desire to see all TAMS members at the annual banquet, President Culver entertained a motion to adjourn at 3:13 p.m. and it was so done, peace and harmony prevailing.

Report on Special Chicago Board Meeting

A special meeting of the newly elected board of the Token and Medal Society following the Friday evening, August 19th, annual banquet in Chicago. The objective of the meeting was to give consideration to a number of proposals concerning the "TAMS Journal."

As a result of moves adopted at this meeting, the Journal will in 1967 begin a publication schedule of an issue every other month, instead of the present five issue per year schedule. Under the new schedule issues will be published the first of February, April, June, August, October, and December.

In switching over to the new publication frequency, the first "TAMS Journal" of 1967 will carry the designation January-March, with following issues being April-May, June-July, August-September, October-November, and December-January. This means there will be another three month gap between the last issue of 1966 (the present issue), the first of November, and the first issue of 1967, the first of February.

Other improvements were approved, or the groundwork laid for their eventual adoption, for the Journal. Primary among these is to increase the page content of exonumist subject material presented. This will be contingent on the availability of worthwhile articles from among the membership.

Another approved change which will aid all members will be the publication of a complete roster of members every other year. This roster will be published as a unit separate from the Journal. Its first publication will be in the Spring of 1968, and every other spring thereafter.

To accomplish these and the other planned improvements, the board found it necessary to raise the annual dues $1.00 a year, effective with the payment of 1967 dues. This means that annual dues are now $4.00, with an additional initiation fee of $1.00 being charged to first year members.

In addition, the board also approved raising the display advertising rates by 20 percent, effective with the January-March, 1966, issue of the Journal. The new rates will be; full page - $30.00, half page - $16.80, and quarter page - $9.60. The rate for classified advertising is being held at 8¢ per word. Also, it was decided that auction ads, which previously had not been acceptable, should be accepted. accepted.

DIRECT ADVERTISING TO EDITOR

The positions of editor and advertising manager of the "TAMS Journal" were combined as a result of the actions approved by the new board at their special meeting in Chicago. Taking effect immediately, this means that all matters relating to advertising, including copy for both display and classified ads, in future Journal issues is to be directed to the editor.

President Bill's

ODDS and ENDS

Our annual convention held during the ANA convention in Chicago this year was less than three months ago and it was tops! Virginia Culver, our immediate past president, who carried on the meetings, Ben and Sylvia Odesser who arranged for the banquet and hospitality room, and a host of others all helped make this the best get-together we've had.

The meetings went off like clockwork with no lost motion. Our new by-laws and constitution were officially approved, new officers and Board were elected, it was voted to expand the Journal to six times annually, full approval of the practice of reprinting old numismatic books was given, encouragement in publicizing original numismatic and exonumismatic works was given, and to accomplish this in a manner that is right and proper, the Board voted to increase annual dues to $4 beginning Jan. 1, 1967.

In just a few days (Nov. 19) TAMS will be six years old. It has grown to over 1500 members and has an international flavor with a handful of "foreign" members. The air of anticipation and enthusiasm among members at the convention gives me full confidence that many, many interesting and exciting years lie ahead for us.

There is so much to do . . . so much to learn in our still largely unexplored field of tokens, medals and related exonumia. And the wonderful thing about it all is that the people exist who can lead us along this exploratory path and are, indeed, now doing it as volunteer workers in TAMS affairs.

The literary awards given at our banquet attest to the many contributors to greater knowledge of our hobby. Voluntary expressions of willingness to help come from every corner of our country.

A special word of thanks to Sylvia and Ben Odesser. They arranged for TAMS hospitality room during the convention and it was just that! Folks who wandered in weren't left at the door, just looking, but were asked in, offered coffee and cookies, and perhaps given a bit of TAMS information. It was a real success and establishes a practice I hope can continue at each annual convention from now on.

The banquet was attended by 128 persons, MC'd by Nate Eglit, and was as successful as we knew it would be. Dottie Dow's elongated cent "favors" at each place were a highlight, and the "TAMS informality" for which we are now well known in numismatic circles, got a whopping boost from Bill Louth of Medallic Art, who presented all banquetgoers with a green beret, with the TAMS letters on the front. Bill Louth deserves bouquets from us all for this gesture, plus the fact that he sponsors the top annual TAMS award, the Medal of Merit, won by Cliff Mishler this year.

Folks like Bill Louth, Don Miller, Joe Segel and others are friends of TAMS whose interest and dedication should inspire us all to greater efforts on behalf of our Society.

Chances are half the membership could write specialized articles for Cliff and the Journal . . . so why not? There are as many specialties among TAMS collectors as there are members, nearly, and the vast hoard of this information needs to be released to us all. You don't have to be a Joseph Pulitzer to submit an article to Cliff for publication. He'll smooth off the rough edges, if any, and we'll all benefit from your effort.

A final comment . . . the first two "past president's" portrait medals are released. They are just about perfect and I am personally proud to have known these men and to own a set of these medals. Virginia Culver's medal will probably be out in early Spring and George Fuld's not far behind that. Then we'll be up to date, and will have carried out a theory in which I believe . . . to "honor the living" . . . a theory in which many TAMS members have expressed their support.

We welcome Byron Johnson as new secretary; Ben Odesser as new treasurer; Irene Alexander as new librarian; and J. Douglas Ferguson, Randolph Zander, Ed Quagaliana, Maurice Gould and Bob Hailey as new members of the Board of Governors. With a lineup like that, plus Cliff as Journal Editor and Al Hoch as Book Editor, how can we miss having a great year?

Bill Spilman

HANSEN ON WASHINGTON BICENTENTENNIAL MEDALS LISTED BY OBVERSE TYPES

By Melvin Fuld, TAMS # 5, Baltimore, Maryland

The author was prompted to write this article because of the presence of an expressed desire on the part of numerous collectors for more information on the 1932 George Washington Bicentennial items which commemorate his birth.

The classic article on this subject was published in "The Numismatist," Vol. XLVII, No. 1, January of 1934, by Harvey L. Hansen of Piedmont, California. The article was contained in pages 3 through 18 of that issue.

Hansen stated at the time of publication; "Undoubtedly there are a large number of medals that have not been described in this list, and additional lists will have to be issued from time to time. It would be greatly appreciated if readers will kindly advise me of unpublished specimens in their possession, allowing me the opportunity of description and illustration.

"The tardiness of the appearance of the list has been due to conditions of the time that unfortunately have not allowed me to be more prompt in the fulfillment of my promise, and for this, as well as other shortcomings, due apology is made."

Even though Hansen wrote out this statement in 1934, the same conditions hold true for the present writer. No supplemental listing was prepared by Hansen, and no claim is made for completeness in the presentation of the present work, as well as an apology to the editor. The same plea for unpublished items is also expressed at the present.

The original article arrangement by Hansen is not clear, except that all the pieces of one manufacturer are grouped together, in accordance with the following outline:

Struck by the Philadelphia Mint; 1 through 6

Single strikings; 7 through 9

Made by F.H. Noble & Co., Chicago, Ill.; 9 through 12

Made by Scoville, Waterbury, Conn.; 16

Made by Whitehead & Hoag, Newark, N.J.; 17 through 32

Made by The Robbins Co., Attleboro, Mass.; 33 through 39

Made by Bastian Bros. Co., Rochester, N.Y.; 40 through 50

Made by Greenduck, Chicago, Ill.; 52

Made by Medallic Art Co., N.Y.C.; 58, 69

Made by Bailey, Banks and Biddle Co.; 70

The missing numbers were made by unknown manufacturers or by individual concerns.

Each number listed by Hansen may contain several different types of finishes, or several metals. To distinguish between finishes and/or metals, we will use for metals the same basic classification system listed in "The Numismatist" ("The Classification of Tokens," Vol. 64, September of 1951, page 953"), with the exception that finishes additionally mentioned by Hansen have been added:

Brass	Br	Bright Polished Finish	Bfp
Bronze	Bo	Copper Finish	Cuf
Copper	Cu	Dull Finish	Df
Lead	Pb	Enamelled	Ef
Nickel	Ni	Gilt Finish	Gf
Silver	Ag	Government Metal Finish	Gmf
White Metal	Wm	Lacquered Finish	Lf
Silvered	Agf	Nickeled Finish	Nif
Brass Finish	Brf	Nickeled with Lacquer	Nifl
Bright Finish	Bf

In the listing which follows the Hansen pieces will be listed according to the example which follows:

H53-Bo, BoGf, BoCuf-32mm. (item number, bronze, bronze with gilt finish, bronze with copper finish, size)

Pieces that were not listed by Hansen will be shown under the obverse types in line with the following examples:

TYPE XVII - H53-1-BoGf. (obverse type, item number, sub-number, bronze with guilt finish; the piece being the Boston American variety)

Another variation will have to be that of a metal or finish not listed in the original Hansen listing. These will carry the Hansen number, followed by the metal or finish, and finally by; (NLH).

While studying Hansen pieces it became evident that the obverses fell into distinct types, and that the manufacturer of these interesting 1932 pieces sold the obverses to a large number of advertisers, newspapers, contests, and such. Distinctive reverses were in turn matched up with the obverses.

The types of 1932 Washington obverses will be listed as follows:

(Reduced)

TYPE I - Round, struck by Philadelphia Mint. H1-Platinum-73mm. H2-Bo-76mm. H3-Bo-58mm.

Obverse, bust of Washington in military uniform in center, above WASHINGTON. Under bust, in small letters, LAURA GARDIN FRASER. Below in a straight line, 1732-1932, separated by the Washington coat-of-arms. Additions; H2-Ag (NLH).

Obverse, Houdin bust of Washington, lower right in two lines, 1732/1932, and around edge, GEORGE WASHINGTON BICENTENNIAL. Hansen says manufacturer is not known. The author has a copy showing no manufacturer, but does have a series of pieces almost identical to H16 with, CAMMILL BADGE BOSTON, in the rim at bottom of reverse. H16 piece has obverse lettering 2.5mm in size and broad, while Cammill pieces are only 2mm narrow and sharp. The reverses likewise have different size lettering. H16 is 1.7mm broad while Cammill is 1.2mm, narrow and sharp. The scene of Washington crossing the Delaware is almost identical, except H16 piece is not as sharp and appears to be struck from a very worn die. Scoville has a record of the die that struck this piece. H16-BoAgf, BoBrf, BoGf, BoBf.

TYPE V - Round, manufactured by Whitehead-Hoag Co. H17-BoGmf-32mm.

The obverse of this piece is identical to H17, although Hansen did not number it so. H24-Bo and H24-BoBf have the identical bust as Type V and were manufactured by Whitehead & Hoag Co. Instead of the lettering as on H17 reverse, almost around, FINE FURNITURE, BROOKLYN-JOHN A. SCHWARZ-JAMAICA.

TYPE V - Sub 6 - H23-1-BoBrf-38mm (NLH). Round, manufactured by Whitehead & Hoag Co.
Obverse, Houdin bust to right. Around, GEORGE WASHINGTON BICENTENNIAL / 1732-1932. In exergue, WHITEHEAD & HOAG. Reverse, bust of Adolphus in field to right. The bust on reverse is entirely different than H23. Whitehead & Hoag made both pieces.

H27-3-Bo. Also; BoGf.
Obverse of H27. Reverse, same wording as H27-2, but the type size is larger. No manufacturer's name, but assumed to be Whitehead and Hoag because of the work and similarity.

H27-4-BoGf-24½mm
Obverse same as H27-2. Reverse, same wording as H27-2, only type is smaller.

TYPE VI - Sub 1 - H33-Bo-32mm. Also; H33-BoGf. Manufactured by Whitehead & Hoag.

All these pieces are same as H37, except they are thin and reverse is blank except for name.

H37-2-Pb
This is a die trial on a flat plate.

Note: In March 1934, "The Numismatist," Vol. XLVII, No. 3, Page 149—Major Edgar Erskine Hume, U.S. Army, started a series of articles, "The Medals of the Society of Cincinnati." In the April, 1934, issue, page 235, he shows and describes medal number 15; "Medal Commemorating the Meeting of the General Society of the Cincinnati at Boston, 1929. The reverse is plain." This has the same obverse as H34 through H38. Major Hume, on page 236, describes this piece; "At the Triennial Meeting of 1929 the members of the General Society who met in Boston were presented by the Massachusetts Society with a medallion of Washington in bronze gilt, measuring 2½ inches in diameter (no. 15). Washington is shown wearing civilian dress, and facing partly to the left. There is no inscription and the reverse is plain. The medal is mounted on a background of black velvet and inclosed in a wooden frame of black and gold measuring 4½ by 5½ inches. It is doubtful if this medal, beautiful as it is, should be included in the series of medals struck to commemorate Triennial meetings of the General Society of Cincinnati. It was made from a stock pattern by Robbins and Company of Attleboro, Massachusetts, which has been available for other purposes. It was used, for example, as the obverse of the Rhode Island medal commemorating the Bicentennial of Washington's birth, issued by a special committee of the Rhode Island legislature." This piece is H38. We have it from several correspondents that the medal described above (H37-1) was sold in various cities in 1932 as a Bicentennial piece.

At the lower edge of circle, and on the clothing of Washington, in small numerals, '1732-1932'. Immediately below, the coat-of-arms of Washington on a shield, then two broad bands, the shield superimposed on the upper and separating the inscription reading, OMNIA RELINQUIT SERVARE REMPULICAM (motto of the Society of Cincinnati). The following are in the writer's collection, and are listed for other collectors' interest. We are confident that many more pieces exist and would appreciate hearing about them. We are following Hansen's pattern—the largest pieces come first, and listing the balance by manufacturer in an alphabetical manner. Hansen stopped at 70, so we will begin with NLH71.

TYPE XXII - NLH71-Bo-68mm.
Obverse, clothed profile bust of Washington facing left, enclosed by inscription - GEORGE WASHINGTON, 1732-1799 - and thirteen stars in groups. Reverse, replica of Mount Vernon as erected at the French Colonial Exposition in Paris, France, in 1931, with inscription in three lines; PATRIAE LIBERATOR / ET DECVS / 1732-1932. This piece has the identical obverse of H8-Ag and H8-Bo, and the reverse has the same replica. The H8 piece has three lines; HAC. DOMO / ETNATUS EST / ET VIXIT. These pieces were struck in the Paris, France, Mint. The sculptor and designer was Bazor, whose name, LUCIEN BAZOR 1932, appears under the bust. It can likewise be assumed that NLH71 was also struck in silver, as was H8.

TYPE XV - NLH72-BoGmf-50mm. Struck by the U.S. Mint, Philadelphia. #647.
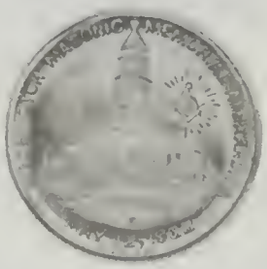
Obverse, same bust as in Type IV in size and sculptoring. The difference is in the size of wording, with the H16 lettering being 2.2mm high, the date being the same. The lettering around is the same, but the size is 1.6mm, while the date is 2.5mm. Reverse, around at top, WASHINGTON BIRTHPLACE, below, thirteen stars. In field, view of house, below, WAKEFIELD, and in exergue, B.B.B. & Co. Recent correspondence with a medal manufacturer advises they made a number of pieces for different button companies, and placed their names or initials on the pieces. It is believed B.B.B. & Co. was a button company. However, it could possibly be Bailey, Banks and Biddle Co. of Philadelphia, but this is not likely because the medal clearly read B.B.B. & Co., and Bailey, Banks and Biddle Co. would be B.B. & B. Co.

NLH75-BoGf-32mm
Obverse, same as NLH74. Reverse, same as above except lettering is 1.7mm, stars 2.4mm, and a different view of house is used. On NLH74, letters are 2.2mm, and stars 2.2mm.



TYPE XVI - Sub 1 - NLH76-BoGf-32mm. Sold by B.B.B. & Co.

Hansen photograph shows similar lettering, although the NLH76 piece it is further to the right on the hub. While B.B. & B. Co. is the manufacturer or seller, the company is unknown to the writer.

TYPE V - Sub 2 - NLH77-BoBf-32mm. Manufactured by Grammes, Allentown, Pa.

except in exergue; GRAMMES, ALLENTOWN, PA. There is a difference in the lettering between H16-H22 and NLH77. On H16-H22 the lettering is a variation of "Future" type. On NLH77 the lettering is no doubt the designer's own variation of "Bernhard Modern Bold" type, with center serifs, or "Zion" with center serifs. On H9 the lettering is similar to "Bernhard" or "Cursive" with variation.

Reverse, identical wording as obverse, with one difference that instead of the bust, a large cut diamond is perched on top of a pine tree. In exergue, GRAMME.

In field, in three lines, YOUNGSTOWN, O. / THE WORKINGMAN'S STORE. In exergue, GREENDUCK, CHI. While no mention is made of centennial, this piece was issued in 1932. Greenduck issued other pieces with the head of Washington, as communicated from Greenduck, who have no specimen to lend for photographing. In field, in six lines, 27TH / ANNUAL / DESIGN SHOW / AUGUST 16-19, 1932 / WASHINGTON / D.C. No doubt Georgia Marble Co. used Noble of Chicago to make this piece. The lettering on H9 and this piece are identical. The bust is enlarged to 23mm high, while on H9 it is only 15mm high. This piece, being produced in silver, was no doubt given for a special purpose, probably a winning design or entry.

Hansen # 1 was struck by the U.S. Mint in platinum and given to President Hoover by the United States Commission handling the official government participation in the celebration of the 200th anniversary of the birth of George Washington. Hansen #2 was struck by the U.S. Mint as a medal of award in connection with national essay, oratorical and similar contests sponsored by the Commission. Hansen #3 was made available to the public through the U.S. Commission. Today it is struck and sold by the Philadelphia Mint.

It is therefore strange Hansen didn't mention the Commission's own medal. Author was aware that it was struck. Recently a correspondent forwarded the illustrated example to include in this article. Because the Commission didn't have "PRESENTED BY THE" engraved in the die, it must be assumed they used this medal for multiple purposes. No doubt all members of the Senate and House received these medals.

SUPPLEMENT

The reason some of the pieces in this listing are holed is that they were attached to cards by ribbons. The most famous of these pieces is H17. This piece comes without hold, with hole, with ring, and with ribbon attached to a card. This mounted piece was sold on a card imprinted; "Remember and help the youngsters to remember the FATHER OF AMERICAN INDEPENDENCE." On the card is a history of Wakefield.

The reason for the ring is that it was attached to a celluloid button with a bust of Washington in civilian dress to the front. The button is 44mm in diameter. Another card was used as a slip container for those bicentennial pieces sold as souvenir pocket coins. Other cards must exist.

A number of bicentennial pieces were manufactured by the Parisian Novelty Co. of Chicago, who in 1923 patented a thermometer made of celluloid which was sold with the customer's imprint. The piece contains a 32mm imprint; WE HONOR HIM / (Houdin bust of Washington with 1732 to the left and 1932 to the right) / GEORGE WASHINGTON / BICENTENNIAL / CELEBRATION.

Since some readers may not have Hansen's original article as it appeared in "The Numismatist," we are providing an outline listing of the seventy pieces, as follows:

Sidney K. Eastwood Passes Away

A note received from W.W. Woodside, Honorary Curator of Coins at the Carnegie Museum, reveals that Sidney K. Eastwood died on May 19, 1966. Eastwood was author of the article "New Orleans Store Cards In The Ante-Bellum Days," which was presented in the last (August-October) issue of the "TAMS Journal." Woodside relates this was Eastwood's last numismatic writing in print, and his passing was not known to the Journal editor at the time, the article having been offered for publication just about a year earlier.

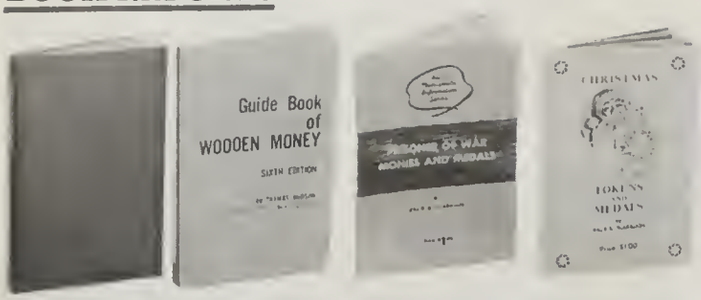
BOOK REPORTS



Lincoln In Numismatics

This volume brings together between a single set of covers the treatments Robert P. King gave to the known numismatic items devoted to Lincoln in three separate issues of "The Numismatist" some thirty to forty years ago. This volume represents the first time these installments have been made available outside these scarce old numbers of "The Numismatist."

It was in the February, 1924, issue of "The Numismatist" that King began his "descriptive list of the medals, plaques, tokens and coins issued in honor of the Great Emancipator. In this, and supplemental listings which appeared in the April, 1927, and August, 1933, issues of that publication, were cataloged some 1047 metallic emissions.

A special Lincoln issue of "The Numismatist" in December, 1959, upped this total by 163 items. This listing, which was edited by Paul H. Ginther and Nathan N. Eglit, is unfortunately not included in the reprint volume. However, this issue is readily available at a nominal price.

This reprint, another of the official TAMS projects, produced in the popular 6 by 9 inch size, is produced directly from the original pages of "The Numismatist" with the permission of the American Numismatic Association. All listed items are carefully described as to devices, metal, and size, and other details concerning purpose, producer, and such where available and appropriate.

A 145 page volume, hard bound in an attractive dark red cover, this reference is priced at $4.00 to TAMS members. Orders should be directed to Virginia Culver, P.O. Box 96, Thiensville, Wis., 53092.

Guide Book of Wooden Money

Recently released is the sixth edition of the above work, which was pioneered by Emil DiBella, and is now being guided by Thomas Hudson. Cataloged are wooden money items issued throughout the world from the 12th century through the year 1965. Naturally, by far the majority of the contents and listings are in the United States area, where "wooden nickels" have enjoyed a thirty-plus year popularity.

For cataloging purposes the listings have been broken down by the nature of the issues; official, semi-official, numismatic, errors, miscellaneous, private, Canadian, and other foreign. These major categories are in turn broken down by state and community of origin, with the year of issue, denomination, color, and market value provided.

The listing, including a short history of the evolution of wooden money, totals 128 pages. Though not illustrated, this comprehensive soft bound volume is a necessary addition to the library of anyone interested in the collecting of "wooden nickels." Of interest is the fact that the first official issue of each state is designated.

Priced at $2.50, orders for this guide may be directed through the distributor, Richard P. Goodson, 9925 Venice Blvd., Los Angeles, Calif., 90034.

Prisoner of War Monies and Medals

A priced catalog of the prisoner of war monies and medals issued from the 18th century to the present, this booklet is the second edition of an original reference by Arlie R. Slabaugh. Its contents are restricted to only those "monies and medals related to, or known to have been used in prisoner of war, internment, concentration, or displaced persons camps."

The various known and confirmed issues of all nations are fully discussed, with discussions broken down into chapters. The initial chapter discusses the prisoner of war and internment camp issues, with separate discussions broken out for the pre-World War I, World War I, World War II, and post-World War II monies. Also broken out separately are discussions of the World War II concentration and displaced persons camp issues.

An exploratory chapter is provided on those money issues brought out in connection with wars since World War II. A final chapter is devoted to prisoner of war medals, with the United States and foreign issues discussed separately. A handy subject index is provided as an aid in using this catalog, which follows more the form of a story than a pure listing.

Liberally illustrated with examples of the discussed materials, and with valuations stated where practical, this 80 page booklet is a bargain at $1.00. It may be purchased from Hewitt Bros, 7320 Milwaukee Ave., Chicago, Ill., 60648.

Christmas Tokens and Medals

Another first in reference works from the pen of Arlie R. Slabaugh is this volume detailing the known medals and tokens relating to the favorite holiday of both children and oldsters. Following the publication of an initial trial listing of United States issues in "The Numismatic Scrapbook Magazine" of December, 1963, and then again in 1965, a large number of pieces, both U.S. and foreign, were made known to the author, making possible the present monograph listing.

The catalog listing incorporates all Christmas and Santa Claus tokens and medals known to have been struck since the earliest known of 1864. While most of the listed items originate from the United States, there are also several listed from Canada, as well as some from other foreign lands.

As is customary in reference listings prepared by Slabaugh, all listed issues are carefully described as to devices and designs, metals, and diameters. Where available, additional information is provided

THE LIBRARIAN REPORTS

by Irene Alexander

TAMS has a new Librarian, as of August 1966. I received the library contents, instructions and information, and good wishes from previous TAMS Librarian Byron Johnson early in September. I shall endeavor to fulfill my duties efficiently, and will try to assist our members in obtaining maximum benefits from all the excellent books and other materials in our library. Quite a number of items were received by Byron just a bit too late to be included in the last issue (no. 4), so they are acknowledged herein, along with those received later. Several auction catalogues were included, but are not listed.

We have just received a copy of the third TAMS reprint book, LINCOLN IN NUMISMATICS, by King. You will want to read it. Also just received are the new books on Canadian trade tokens of several of the provinces, a "must" for collectors of these items.

This issue we give thanks to WORLD COINS Magazine, via Russel Rulau; to Jack Koch, Stephen Westergaard, Max Schwartz, Paul Targonsky, A. F. Almanzar, and J. D. Ferguson for their thoughtful donations.

TAMS JOURNAL INDEX - VOL. V, NO.5 - VOL.VI, NO.5

This index to the "TAMS Journal" covers all issues in Volume VI, including the present number, plus Volume V, Number 5. All articles are cross-indexed by title and author, the titles being in all caps. All articles or items of interest are indexed by the key words in the title - thus the article on "An Analysis of O.P.A. Tokens" is indexed as "O.P.A. TOKENS, An Analysis of." Following each listing is a two part number which indicates its position, the first part being a Roman number indicating the volume number, and the second number indicating the page number in that volume - thus on the above article, the reference number "VI-87" indicates the article will be found on page 87 of volume six. While no index can be perfect for everyone, especially in the numismatic field, the editor hopes this one is fairly comprehensive and easy to use.

Past President Medals

Official medals providing recognition of the terms of office of past presidents of the Token and Medal Society were authorized by a unanimous vote of the board of governors earlier this year. Examples of the first two issues in the series are currently available for purchase by members of the Society.

James J. Curto
Second President
1962-1963

(Actual size is two inches in diameter.)

Paul Hamm
Third President
1963-1964

In addition to these two currently available medals, issues marking the tenures of the other two TAMS past presidents (First President George Fuld in 1960-1962, and Fourth President Virginia Culver in 1964-1966) are currently in various stages of production, and scheduled for release in early 1967.

A complete set of these medals with their portraits housed in a plush presentation case, is presented to each past president, such sets consisting of one medal struck in each of three metals; gold filled, fine silver, and a deep chocolate patina bronze. Only a single gold filled specimen is struck in each instance. The silver and bronze varieties are also being produced for purchase by members of the Society. Size is 2" diameter.

Curto - Silver, $15.00 - Bronze, $6.00 - Pair, $20.00

Hamm - Silver, $15.00 - Bronze, $6.00 - Pair, $20.00

The above stated prices are for active TAMS members, non-member prices being; silver, $17.50-bronze, $7.50. Final orders for the silver varieties will be closed out as of December 31, 1967. However, the bronze variety will remain available indefinitely. As the silver medals are produced only in small quantities to supply the immediate demand, delays may sometimes be experienced in their shipment.
